Insurance

To those who join National Health Insurance:

Those who join National Health Insurance will get notice letters addressed to your house holder around the middle of July.

※The tax debtor is your head of the family. Even though the householder has other health insurance (e.g. the latter-stage elderly medical insurance, social insurance from the working place etc.), the householder would be the tax debtor if one of the family member has National Health Insurance.

※Please let the section in charge know if you get a notice letter despite you have your social insurance.
