Thorough infection control measures!

People infected with the Omicron strain may have a mild illness and may not know they are infected. To protect your family and reduce the burden on the medical field, take thorough infection control measures at home.

Wash your hands frequently.

Don't share towels or cups.

Take your temperature every morning.

If anyone may be infected...

Separate rooms.

A limited number of people take care of him/her.

Wear a mask at home.

To all dog owners

Don't forget to get your dog vaccinated against rabies!

Inquiry Environmental Planning Division (Kankyo Kikaku-ka)

☎ 0544-22-1136 FAX 0544-22-1207

What is Rabies?

Rabies is a horrible disease that can infect humans and kills almost 100% of those who develop it.

Currently, it does not occur in Japan, but it occurs in most parts of the world, killing 40,000 to 50,000 people each year.

There is always a threat of rabies due to the flow of people and goods from abroad.

In order to prevent rabies outbreaks, vaccinations are obligatory.

Dog Registration

When you own a dog, you are obliged to register it and put the dog identification tag (plate) on the dog's collar.

Registration is once in a lifetime, and the dog identification tag is given at the time of registration.

If you move or if your dog dies, you must submit a notification.

Dog Identification Tag →

Fee 3,000 yen (For registration)

Application Animal hospitals in the city or at the Environmental Planning Division Counter (4th floor of City Hall)

Others Putting the identification tag on your dog is useful when your dog gets lost.

Rabies vaccination

Owners are obliged to have their registered dogs vaccinated every year, and put the vaccination certificate (plate), which is issued after vaccination, on the dog's collar.

Vaccination Certificate →

In Our Daily Lives

Just a little bit of effort from each of us can lead to more gentle lives for others. Why don't we start with what we can do and bring it into our daily lives?

Yasashii Nihongo (Easy and Kind Japanese)

Easy and Kind Japanese is a Japanese that is rephrased in a way that is easy to understand for foreigners, children, the elderly, and people with disabilities. Let's speak slowly, clearly, and loudly, using gestures in conversation.

Let's rephrase for each situation.
